Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB) covers many types of actions from low-level persistent nuisance to serious public disturbance and is behaviour that:

- is capable of causing nuisance and annoyance
- is likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress
- creates significant and persistent problems in the neighbourhood
- Leaves communities intimidated and afraid.

Examples of such behaviour would include: noise, harassment, vandalism, graffiti and fly tipping, nuisance neighbours, street drinking, intimidation and threats, violence and hate behaviour that targets members of identified groups because of their perceived differences.

How do I report ASB?

- Report report it via the Norfolk Police website at <https://www.norfolk.police.uk/contact-us/6-report-it/08-anti-social-behaviour>
- Contact Norfolk Police by calling 101.
- Contact your local District Council.
- Social housing tenants can report the problem to their Housing Officer.

In an emergency always call the police on 999.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

PC Graham Gower-Smith has been busy over the last month with priorities leading up to Christmas. This included some extra patrols to combat theft from shops in Holt town centre.

Holt Christmas Lights was a success with everyone enjoying the festive season. Additional officers were available for the night but no issues were reported.

There has been a few incidents of plant theft including a quad bike. PC Gower-Smith would be happy to speak to anyone concerned with the security of plant and agricultural machinery and offer crime prevention advice where necessary. Please contact him on the above SNT email.

Over the coming weeks and with temperatures dropping please be vigilant regarding heating oil levels. PC Gower-Smith is currently focusing on theft of heating oil and all incidents should be reported to Norfolk Police via 101, the online reporting form or by calling 999 in an emergency.

CURRENT NEIGHBOURHOOD PRIORITIES

1. To deter theft of heating oil and used cooking oil.
2. To deter retail thefts leading up to Christmas.
